

2012 MAGICAL MYSTERY LITERARY HISTORY TOUR HOTELS

PRAGUE

June 29–July 1

HOTEL BISHOP'S HOUSE is located in the center of Prague's historic district of Lesser Town. It is in the shadow of Prague Castle, about 200 feet from Charles Bridge. The building's origin dates back to the 16th century, with a classic facade from 1843. Enjoy the comfort and marvel at the genuine remnants of a past time on this site of a former bishop's residence. The hotel's program of constant quality improvement insures the highest standards and provides a charming and welcoming ambiance. The property features a fine restaurant and small tavern with outdoor tables.

KRAKOW

July 2–July 4

RT REGENT HOTEL is a little gem of a hotel situated just off the tourist path in the heart of the historic Jewish area of Kazimierz, only a short walk to the Main Market Square and Wawel Hill Castle. Comfortable and atmospheric, it is the ideal location to enjoy and participate in the vibrant Jewish Culture Festival's concerts, lectures, classes and tours. This lovely small hotel offers culture and history just steps away from the front door. The trendy district of Kazimierz, once deserted and crumbling, is now filled with cafes, restaurants, art galleries and shops, as well as the best Zapakankie stand in Krakow.

BERLIN

July 5–July 7

HONIGMOND, which translates as "honeymoon," is an enchanting historic hotel on a quiet residential street in the former East Berlin. The award-winning restaurant is a local favorite, and the rooms sparkle in their restored glory. The accommodations feature crown moldings, cedar plank floors, iron framed beds, and even a suit of armor. Many of the most important sights of Berlin can be reached on foot, as well as a host of bars, shops, and restaurants. As the owners say, "We are not a luxury hotel, not a chain hotel and not even a wellness hotel, we are simply an individual—something different—hotel, in which much "love" has been invested."
